CASA NARCISO

A vaulted, covered entry introduces the spacious three bedroom, two bath Casa Narciso. With the addition of an optional desk and wet bar, one bedroom becomes a cozy den. The dining nook beside the kitchen or the formal dining room with patio view are thoughtfully arranged. The wood-burning fireplace in the living room is situated as a focal point, and the patio terrace extends the indoor/ outdoor relationship of the plan. A luxurious master suite is secluded for maximum privacy. Arched openings lead from the master bedroom past the double wardrobes to the dressing room with vanity. At Casa Narciso, your every desire has been anticipated in an incomparably fine residential design.

CASA MAYA

A sheltered porch, an impressive entry foyer and a dramatic atrium with graceful French doors to the formal living room highlight the two bedroom, two bath Casa Maya. A wide arch frames the entry to the formal living room which overlooks the rear garden terrace while a wood burning fireplace provides a quiet corner for entertaining or relaxing at home. Here is a bright corner kitchen adjacent to the sunny dining room, both overlooking the interior atrium. A lavish master bedroom suite is a personal retreat. Thoughtfully arranged for every comfort and convenience, the Casa Maya is a rewarding home displaying design excellence of the highest standards.

CASA ROSA

Sure to please the most discriminating tastes in residential design, the two bedroom, two bath Casa Rosa displays unusual innovations for maximum privacy. The large formal living room oriented to the garden terrace, the den with gracefully arched opening, and the formal dining area form an inviting entertainment unit. A dining nook in the kitchen provides a corner for casual meals or a quiet breakfast. The lavish master bedroom suite with arched opening to the dressing room, huge walk-in closet, built-in vanity and private bath is appointed for luxury. The secondary bedroom shares the garden view. With a deceptively easy flow of space, Casa Rosa is one of those classics of simplicity which provides enduring pleasure.

CASA VIOLETA

Among the distinctive homes of the Fiesta Series at Casta del Sol, the two bedroom, two bath Casa Violeta is a special blend of California casual and Eastern formal design. The entry corridor effectively zones the private areas from the entertaining areas of this distinctive home. The living room beside the patio and dining room is invitingly arranged for festivities or quiet relaxation. The large kitchen and dining nook are separated to one side, and the secondary bedroom can be converted into a charming den. The master bedroom suite is secluded from all major activity areas for the peaceful retreat from all cares of the day. Casa Violeta is a very special residence—blending traditional comfort with contemporary convenience for design unity and ease of living.
